

Books and Reading Love-In February 2019

TAKE PART IN UWC LIBRARY'S "BOOK AND READING LOVE-IN"!

February is the month of love - and at UWC Library, what we love is learning. That's why we're hosting the Books & Learning Love-In, calling on you to share the books that have brought you most joy, inspiration or lessons.

We're looking for ideas for fiction/non-fiction titles that should be added to the Library's new Recreational Reading Collection - and they need YOUR help.

Please participate in this festival of reading by sharing titles that fall into either of the following categories:

Your Personal Best-Loved Book: You treasure this book for how it influenced you, or moved you.

Your Favourite Recent Read: What book has recently delighted you?

Click here to participate – and share your passion for the book/s you love!

The Library will use your response as part of a display in the Library Atrium. The overall intention is to promote reading as a very pleasurable and important past-time, and to get ideas for titles that should be added to the Library collection.

Closing date: 15 February 2019
